“Ursa Farmers Cooperative is excited to support the mission of the UFC Foundation. The Foundation was created to provide a vehicle for those with a passion for agriculture to have a secure, local, vested entity to administer good will and serve existing and future needs of our local communities. Ursa Farmers Cooperative is 100 years strong and we look forward to the impact the Foundation will have in the next 100 years.”

BUILDING A LEGACY

Neighbors Supporting Neighbors

About the UFC Foundation

The UFC Foundation offers community members an opportunity to give back and invest in future generations. After recognizing a need from those who wanted to donate or bequeath funds, the Foundation was created. This provides everyone the opportunity to invest in the future and create a legacy within our communities.

Take Control of Your Contribution

You have worked hard over the course of your career and are passionate about the future of agriculture. The Foundation enables you to make a direct contribution to an area of interest through a trusted source, while utilizing shared resources. Donations can be public or anonymous and specifically invested in areas of your choice. Contributors are empowered to:

- Keep your donation local, giving right back to our community.
- Synergize funds, working together to invest in an area of common interest.
- Proudly support the next 100 years, continuing the legacy built by previous generations.

Investing in Future Generations

Investing in the proper channels is imperative to the agriculture industry. By making a monetary investment to the Foundation, you are creating a path for all future generations. Every contribution, no matter the size, is a catalyst for growth and development to our interests and passion for agriculture.

Simple Ways to Donate to the UFC Foundation

You can contribute in multiple ways:

- Cash or check donation
- Property or real estate donation
- Targeted funds such as memorials or trust disbursements
- Grain sales

Funding Inspiration

There are many ways donated funds and resources can be used. You can decide what your donation will fund. These are just a few ideas to spark inspiration.

- Establish an annual scholarship fund for agriculture programs at area colleges.
- Pool funds to purchase safety equipment and educate local emergency services.
- Donate property with income generation to support local, defined needs.
- Contribute to support area FFA programs, 4-H, food banks, mission groups or other causes.
- Create emergency fund to support members going through hardship, like a child with cancer or farm-related accident.
