AgHeritage Farm Credit Services Announces Scholarship Winners

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services awarded nine $500 scholarships to high school students. “AgHeritage FCS is proud to make scholarships available each year,” said Greg Cole, President and CEO, AgHeritage FCS. “We see the scholarships as an investment in our future.” The 2010 AgHeritage Farm Credit Services Scholarship Program recipients are: Carson R. York of Salem; Anna F. Blankenship of Melbourne; Hanah D. Hutchinson of Newport; Coty S. Bell of Searcy; Jessica J. Wilkison of Brinkley; Joe D. Mercer III of Rison; Taryn E. Parker of Stuttgart; Jessica Laine McCallie of Carlisle; and Steven M. Martin of Hamburg.

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services is proud to support the rural communities of Arkansas through programs that benefit the next generation of farmers. The scholarship program, which was established in 2001, is open to grandchildren and dependent children of AgHeritage Farm Credit Services. Recipients were chosen for their outstanding academic performance and school related and extracurricular participation.

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services is a financial cooperative with owned and managed assets in excess of $825 million that provides credit and related services to more than 2,400 farmers and ranchers in 24 Arkansas counties. Branch offices are located in Batesville, Brinkley, Dermott, Lonoke, Newport, Pocahontas, Searcy, Star City and Stuttgart.
