Frenchman Valley Coop Announces Change in Management

(Imperial, NE) February 21, 2017: Frenchman Valley Coop announced a change in management effective today.

The Board of Directors has accepted the resignation of Doug Ohlson as CEO, effective immediately. Cliff Church, current CFO, has assumed temporary leadership duties. The FVC Board has full confidence in his ability to manage the company during this period of transition in management.

With CFO Church assuming management responsibilities, the FVC Board will have ample time to find a CEO that meets the needs of its member owners well into the future. We thank Doug Ohlson for his dedicated service to FVC and wish him the best in the future.

Founded in 1912, FVC has 21 locations serving patrons in southwest Nebraska, northwest Kansas, the Nebraska Panhandle, northeast Colorado and Wyoming. FVC provides services in agronomy, feed, grain, member services, energy and grain procurement.
