Frenchman Valley Coop Announces Interim CEO

(Imperial, NE) April 20, 2017: On April 18, 2017, the Frenchman Valley Farmers Cooperative, Inc. (FVC) Board of Directors announced the appointment of John Bender as Interim CEO effective immediately.

John Bender has been in the ag industry for 35 years and brings a great deal of experience with him as he takes on the FVC Interim CEO position. Bender is originally an Ohio native and began his career there. He has held multiple positions in the cooperative system including stints as general manager in Kansas, Indiana, Iowa and Illinois.

“I look forward to working with FVC and the communities it serves to continue to strengthen its commitment to remain the area’s premier service provider,” said Bender.

The existing management team will remain in their roles while the FVC Board of Directors continues their search and interview process for a permanent CEO.

Founded in 1912, FVC has over 20 locations serving patrons in southwest Nebraska, northwest Kansas, the Nebraska Panhandle, northeast Colorado and Wyoming. FVC provides services in agronomy, energy, feed, grain, member services, and grain procurement.
