Frenchman Valley Coop donates $10,000 to local FFA Chapters

(Imperial, Neb.)–Frenchman Valley Coop, along with CoBank, has donated $10,000 to the Nebraska FFA Foundation to support local FFA programming. Kimball, Creek Valley, Perkins County, Chase County, Wauneta-Palisade, Dundy County, Hayes Center, McCook, Southwest, Hitchcock County, South Platte, Potter-Dix and Sidney FFA chapters were all selected by Frenchman Valley Coop to receive funds in this special project.

These programs will use the donation towards leadership programming, community service projects and innovative projects in their agricultural education classrooms and FFA chapter.

“Frenchman Valley Cooperative is glad to continue our support of our local FFA Chapters. Their activities extend beyond the traditional classroom reaching into developing leadership skills and building a foundation of discipline and dedication that remains in the students for a lifetime. Our cooperative and customer base is populated with former FFA members who have benefited from the FFA experience.” Stated John Bender of Frenchman Valley Coop.
